About Reach Magazine

Reach Magazine is a free, full-colour, full-gloss quarterly publication that focuses on the niche market of entrepreneurs. Entrepreneurs make up a substantial amount of the economy of British Columbia. We plan to capture the interests of those who enjoy new innovations, fashion, social issues, and entertainment, by focusing on entrepreneurs from these industries. By featuring whom they are, how they started it, and why they do it, we plan to create a business lifestyle magazine.

Our main purpose is to provide entrepreneurs a stage where they can promote themselves. A stage where they can also educate readers on how they got to do what it is they are doing, and what back story led them on their path to success.

Their creative and unique innovations, and groundbreaking work will serve our readers by both informative and inspirational means.

Reach will evoke a sense of educative freedom, whereby its readers will gain knowledge from each article presented within its glamorous pages.

The Buzz Entrepreneurship Event

Happening on the 13th of August at the Joseph Richards Boutique Club, the event will host entrepreneurs from all types of industries. All entrepreneurs from all industries are invited, as Reach Magazine will showcase entrepreneurs that have been featured in the magazine, along side entrepreneurs that Reach Magazine hopes to feature in the near future.

The event will host entrepreneurs such as Ryan Holmes from Invoke Media, Minna Van from The Network Hub, Alisha Mann from Alisha Mann Ventures and a host of other amazing entrepreneurs.
